+Stewardship Moment...

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit." MATTHEW 13:22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in worldly activities that you have no time for God? Stewardship is a lifestyle to be lived every day. It effects all the decisions we make. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week. Catholic Stewardship International.com

"Living Catholic in the 808" Baptism, Confirmation and then First Communion

Reflections on the Original Order
Q: kdeneve@rcchawaii.org

The sacraments that initiate us into the Christian life are Baptism and Confirmation. Baptism and Confirmation go hand in hand, like a certificate given its official seal. In Baptism, Christians share in the death and resurrection of Jesus. In Confirmation, the Holy Spirit comes down upon us as it did on the Apostles on the day of Pentecost. Baptism and Confirmation are as inseparable as Easter and Pentecost Sundays, the first and last days of the Easter season.

Jesus himself was baptized and then confirmed by his Father with the gift of the Spirit: "After Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and, behold, the heavens were opened for him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, saying, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased'" (Matthew 3:16-17).

In the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the sacraments are received in the proper theological order, usually at the Easter vigil — Baptism, Confirmation, and then first Holy Communion. This takes place for anyone 7 years of age and older. Soon, our children baptized as infants will also be confirmed prior to First Communion.

Kid's Faith Corner!

Cars

ICP Kid : Sister, are the cars made by God?

Sister: What do you think?

ICP Kid: I think Yes, sister, but am confused!

Sister: Tell me first, who made the birds, air, and all the things here on earth?

ICP kid: God!

Sister: Who made us?

ICP kid: God, Sister!

Sister: Very good! He made us because of love. We want to know Him, love Him and serve Him. He gave us mind for us to create or make the best and decide what is good for us and for others. All the goods of the earth created by God are to be used wisely by all so that everybody will be happy. Now, who made the cars? And who made us?

"Man has been created by God and is the only creature on earth that God has loved for his own sake. The human person, with his spiritual soul – comprising will and intellect–, from the first instant of his conception, has been ordained to eternal beatitude. Man attains perfection, seeking and loving truth and goodness. We have been created by God, and the meaning of life consists in walking towards God so as to live forever with Him: this is man's vocation. CCC 1720-1729

RESPECT FOR LIFE CORNER

A True Story...

By Kathleen M. Refamonte-Ramos

One Sunday, at the 9:30 am Mass, I was sitting next to a grandmother and she shared what was on her heart. He grand daughter was 7 month pregnant and was having a difficult pregnancy. She was admitted to Kapiolani Hospital. Meanwhile here on Kauai her other two young children stayed with their dad and also went to stay with grandma. Mom missed the children and so after giving birth, she came home and surprised her two children.

We prayed the Holy Rosary for this family and give praise and thanksgiving to God! Please pray the Holy Rosary and our Blessed Mother will intercede for us!

Prayer for a Stewardship Parish

(from the Archdiocese of Detroit)

Dear Heavenly Father, my parish is composed of people like me; I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them. It will do great work, if I work. It will make generous gifts to many causes, if I am a generous giver. It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship, if I invite and bring them. It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a parish with a noble spirit, if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with Your help, O God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be. Amen.
